The organization belongs to the Mother Theresa foundation called MISSIONARIES OF CHARITY. There are totally 45 children who are both physically and mentally challenged. There are children from 6 months of age to 15 years. Ten sisters look after the children. All the children are physically or mentally challenged. They send the children for speech therapy, school.

S E S S I O N A C T I V I T I E S :

The program started with an interaction session with the sisters in the home. Then we spent some time with the children in the home and tried to make them happy. As the children were not well we haven't conducted any physical activities for the children. Later distribution of stationary items and fruits to the children was done. Then we helped the sisters in feeding the children during their Breakfast, Lunch & Snacks.
