

December 24, 2015

Students from Koneru Lakshmaiah University, Vijayawada receive TCS Best Student-Project Awards

PLACE : Vijayawada

TCS award for the Best Student-Project of 2014-15 batch was given away to Mr. B. Venkata Ramana, Mr. B. Sai Shashank, Mr. P. Karthik and Mr. B. Ravi Kumar for their project entitled "A Secure Mechanism to Defend Black Hole Intrusion in Cognitive Radio Networks" by Mr V Rajanna, TCS Vice President and Regional Head. The project was done by students from the Department of Computer Science Engineering, Koneru Lakshmaiah University, Vijayawada. The award comprises a gold medal, a certificate and a cash price of Rs.20,000.

Mr. B. Venkata Ramana, Mr. B. Sai Shashank, Mr. P. Karthik and Mr. B. Ravi Kumar receiving the best student-project award from Mr V Rajanna, Vice President & Regional Head, TCS

Mr. V Rajanna, Vice President & Regional Head of TCS personally presented this award to Mr. B. Venkata Ramana, Mr. B. Sai Shashank, Mr. P. Karthik and Mr. B. Ravi Kumar during the awards ceremony held in TCS Deccan Park Campus. TCS Best Student-Project Award is presented to one project nominated by the college from each of the colleges with which TCS has signed MoU. This award aims to promote creativity and socially useful projects.