

K L UNIVERSITY
Department of Computer Science & Engineering

Session : 1 (SAHITHYA KALAKAR)
Date : 05-10-2014
Time : 5:30 pm to 9:30pm
Venue : PB SIDDHARTHA
Organized by : KL University, NEMSIS Team, CSE department.
Faculty In-charge : Mrs. K. Ruth Ramya

NEMSIS– REPORT 1 (2014-2015)

About Organization:

Apple is an orphanage organized by Sneha Latha garu. She is the founder of this organization. This is established in the year 2001. There are about 50 small children in this organization. They are orphans, semi orphans and poor children here. She takes care of these children providing them food, clothes. Government is giving free education to these children. There are no foreign funds or sponsorships to this organization. Sneha latha garu maintains this only by local funds given in Vijayawada.

Session Activities:

Motto to serve is the greatest qualification one can hold. It is gloomy to hear that 50 orphans were downhearted due to lack of proper building and financial support. With a view to rescue the orphans we the NEMSIS team put our hands together and organized an event SAHITHYA KALAKAR.

The session started with a prayer song along with welcome dance and followed by welcome note given by Vice-president of NEMSIS-CH.DURGAMANOHARREDDY. He also introduced guests of the event KOLLU RAVINDRA GARU, KONERU SREEDHAR GARU, VISHAL GARU on to the dias, followed by Jyothiprajwalana. Speech by distinguished guests provided mental stability to the kids and also motivated the youth by incorporating the zeal to serve the downtrodden.

The classical dance performance by Monika summarized the tradition of INDIA. Teja's dance created an enthusiastic environment among the audience. The entire crowd was struck with the way the kids depicted their pain in the form of song along with dance, NEE PREMA KORE CHINARULAM. The show later was preceded by Ujwal's fire show, which made everyone stand wonderstruck. Later, Skit performed by margam got a huge response from each and every individual in the auditorium. The show continued with Black Light Crew Dance which stood as scintillating performance of the day. Then, a dance performance by Anudeep and group is a fizzing performance which portrayed the energy levels of all the dancers.

Participants from colleges in and around Vijayawada took an active participation in the band play, skit, classical dance which marked astonishing. SPEW and RAISE FOUNDATIONS shared their ongoing projects for the people in need. Black light Crew came up with an impressive dance. Eventually, the energetic dance by Raghu and group tapped the feet of every individual. The patriotic songs at the end bloomed the entire event.

The entire show stood spectacular. By the end of the day, every individual felt contended for raising their hands in serving the homeless and the needy. Finally, a cheque of Rs. 30,000/- was handed over to APPLE SEVASAMITHI from NEMSIS the session was concluded at 9:30 P.M by National anthem.

PHOTOS:

